Jaden Cleland's Baseball Blog

March 15, 2016

Off the bat I'd like to announce to all the moms out there that we did arrive safely back in Cedarville Sunday afternoon, so you can stop worrying. The fact that we arrived back safely with hands down the best part of the ride home, which somehow crammed 15 hours of driving into 22.

From all 30 guys eating Taco Bell in the middle of a 22-hour bus ride to coach turning on the movie Everest on full blast at 7:00 in the morning, the ride back was nearly as memorable as the time spent in Clearwater.

In actual baseball news, catcher Corey Adkins, second baseman Ross Melchior, and right fielder Nate Bancroft all made their pitching debuts much to the chagrin of the scoreboard in a loss against Missouri-St. Louis. I've learned the only thing worse than getting beat 35-10 is having to explain how it happened to everyone you meet upon returning to campus. While the game wasn't the closest in Jacket baseball history, it did provide opportunities for young players to get their feet wet at new positions, and an opportunity for us to humble ourselves as a team.

Upon our return to the Buckeye State, we have attempted to settle into everyday life like super heroes assimilating into society as average Joe's. Indoor practices begin again, freshmen (mostly Brent) remain confused about practice times and location, and the group chat continues to thrive. Pat a baseball player on the back this week, and remember we aren't heroes. We're just everyday citizens just trying to do our part.

Freshman Spotlight

2B (#22) - Ross Melchior

What to say about Ross...I mean...he's funny. Ross Melchior (pronounce it the best you can, but no one really knows how) is one of the funniest guys I've ever played with. He brings young leadership, a GPA boost to the squad, plays a mean second base, and apparently pitches, too. This 200-pound second baseman is a biology major from Cheyenne, Wyoming. Have you ever been there? No? You'd love it there. Ross answered a few questions for us today. Ross has never played the board game "Risk" and has never heard of Destiny's Child, so he ruined two of my questions. If Ross could describe his hair with one word, it would be "riggins" (strangely enough, that's a perfect description, and I have no idea what that means). He spends 18 hours a week studying in the HSC (Health Something Center), and the most famous person he knows from Wyoming is Brandon Nimmo. If you see Ross on campus, please don't disturb his studies. Politely wave and move on.

How do you manage being a student and an athlete at the college level? Isn't it tough with how often you miss class? - (Terry, Delaware)

Terry, first of all, let's try to limit ourselves to one question next time instead of two (I'm on a word count). Part of being a college athlete is learning to balance your athletics with your academic requirements. Our team GPA last year was over 3.00, which shows our guy's ability to get it done both on the field and in the classroom. Yes, it's tough.

The baseball blog is the best-kept secret on campus this year. Tweet the link, share it with your friends, print it out and mail it to your grandmother, etc.

Email questions about the team, our schedule, expectations, or what you'd like to see in the next blog to jadencleland@cedarville.edu I'll answer them in the next blog.

Thanks for reading,
Big Mamu

Today's Game

The Cedarville University baseball team hosts the University of Findlay Oilers in a non-conference game and the 2016 home opener. Today's contest will be a single nine-inning game.

Cedarville returned from their Spring Break trip to Florida with a 3-5 record. Findlay, members of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC), are 5-5 on the year. The Oilers split a twinbill with Gannon last Saturday in Toledo - dropping the opener 4-2 before taking the second game 3-2.

Junior third baseman Drew Johnson leads the Jackets with a .424 batting average, 14 hits, seven runs, 18 total bases and three stolen bases.

Sophomore outfielder Colton Potter is batting .394 while senior David Lenhardt is hitting .379 with a team-best seven runs batted in.

Senior right-hander Jordan Adams is 1-0 with a save in four innings of work. He has not allowed a run in the early-going. Sophomore Josh Kneeland has posted a team-high 11 1/3 innings on the mound.

CLEARWATER, Fla. - Cedarville nearly erased a six-run deficit before dropping an 11-10 decision to Rockhurst in it's final Florida contest.

Cedarville spotted the Hawks an 11-5 lead and scored five times in the bottom of the 8th inning to account for the final.

Eight different players contributed to the 11-hit attack. Drew Johnson supplied two hits including a double.

Andrew Ziegenfus contributed two hits, two RBI's, and two runs scored while Marshall Johnson added two hits and three RBI's.

David Lenhardt drove in two runs and Nathan Bancroft scored twice.

Five different pitchers went to the mound for Cedarville. Only five of the 11 runs allowed were earned.

Head Coach Mike Manes

Mike Manes (pronounced MAN-us) has been the head baseball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He has guided the Yellow Jackets to the seven winningest seasons in school history and six trips to the NCCAA National Tournament.

Manes has won more games than any previous baseball coach that CU has ever had averaging nearly 30 victories per season. The Jackets have claimed four NCCAA Midwest Region banners during his tenure.

Three of Manes' players have advanced to the professional ranks including righthanded pitcher David Ledbetter, who was a 3rd round choice by the Texas Rangers and 99th pick overall in the 2013 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

The Yellow Jackets were 31-27 in 2014 while winning 10 of their last 15 games. They were the Great Midwest Athletic Conference runner-up and advanced to the NCCAA National Semifinals.

Cedarville posted a 29-19 mark in 2013. The Jackets claimed their third straight NCCAA Midwest Region title and returned to the national tournament.

CU set the school record for the most victories in a season in 2012 with a 38-13 record. The Yellow Jackets won their third NCCAA Midwest Region banner in the past four years and advanced to the national tournament as the No. 1 seed.

Cedarville was 33-18-2 in 2011 and had a best-ever five NCCAA All-Americans on the roster. The Jackets copped the NCCAA Midwest Region banner for the second time in three years and returned to the NCCAA National Tournament. Manes was named the Region Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 28-27 record in 2010. The Jackets were also the NCCAA Midwest Region runner-up.

Manes was named the 2009 NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year after leading Cedarville to the region title. The Yellow Jackets won over 30 games for the first time in school history with their 32-28 record and split four games at the NCCAA Nationals.

Cedarville was the Midwest Region runner-up in Manes' first season in 2008. The Jackets set a then school record for the most victories in season with 23. They also won eight games in the tough American Midwest Conference which equaled their league win total from the previous three seasons combined.

Manes came to the Yellow Jackets following a four-year stay as head coach at Trinity International University near Chicago. He was able to turn the TIU program around after inheriting a team that won just four games in his first season in 2004 and the school had never qualified for the conference tournament.

Manes then guided the Trojans to 85 victories over the next three seasons by winning 25, 28, and 32 games, respectively, which set school records for the most victories in a season each time. The 2006 squad put together TIU's first-ever winning season and the 2007 team finished 32-22.

In his short tenure, Manes guided the Trojans to their first-ever conference tournament appearance, two NCCAA North Central Region championships, and TIU played in the NCCAA National Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was tabbed the 2005 NCCAA North Central Region Coach of the Year.

The Nebraska native previously founded and coached the Lincoln Crusaders which is an American Legion baseball club. In his 11 years at the helm, the team made nine trips to the state tournament winning one championship and finishing as the runner-up on two other occasions.

Manes is actively involved in baseball administration. He is currently the NCCAA baseball chair as well as the chair of the new Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Manes is a 1989 graduate of Liberty University and he earned a master's degree in 2005 from Alameda University. Mike and his wife, Connie, reside in Springfield and have four married children and 12 grandchildren.
